

Art-Havana Art Tours

Art-Havana offers the unique possibility of getting to know Cuban contemporary art first hand through the display of art and intimate exchange of ideas with the artists themselves and local art curators in the artists' own studios. This experience is only for those interested in knowing more about Cuban society far beyond the tourist point of view. It appeals to collectors of Latin-American art interested in knowing the trends in contemporary art from Cuba.

According to journalist Gavin McOwan who took this tour:

"I learned more about modern Cuba from these artists in one day than I did in the rest of my two-week trip."

—The Guardian, January 26, 2008
